From our Pastor

Beloved,

I hope that your 2008 is off to a good start! It seems like the holiday season blew by so quickly and the new year is in full swing. I am thankful for all that the Lord did in our church this past year. I also hope that this year will be even better! There are a couple of things coming up the next two Sundays that I want you to be aware of.

Our pulpit guest this Sunday morning will be Jason Helmbacher. Jason spent part of his growing up years in Elk City while his father was on our staff. Later, Jason also served on our staff as Youth Minister. For the past several years he has served as Pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church in Sallisaw, Oklahoma. He and his wife, Rachelle, have been appointed as missionaries by the International Mission Board to the Balkans in the area of Bosnia. Jason will be here to share with us about this ministry. This is something you won't want to miss.

Our Winter Bible Study will be January 20-23 with Dr. Mack Roark as our Bible teacher. Mack will be leading us in a study of The Sermon on the Mount. He served as pastor of churches in Texas, California, and Oklahoma. For many years, he taught New Testament courses at OBU and served as adjunct professor for Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is now retired, but is in great demand as a preacher of God's Word. The Bible Conference will be Sunday morning through Wednesday night. If you love to study God's Word, you will enjoy this time together with Dr. Roark.

I will look forward to seeing you this Sunday at Sunday School and worship services. It is joy to serve the Lord with you here in Elk City!
