From our Pastor

Beloved,

The Bible is a great treasure that we should spend time in every day. The apostle Paul said in Colossians 3:16, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom." There are several ways that believers can take the word into their lives and each is important.

The first way is what we often call the "quiet time." God's people should have a time of daily devotions in which we read the Bible and pray. God speaks to us through the Scriptures and we speak to God through prayer. Bible study is one of the basic ways by which we commune with God. By reading and thinking on different verses, we feed our souls and experience the presence of God.

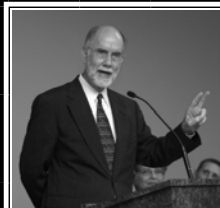

Another good way to study the Bible is in a Sunday School or discipleship class. You can learn a lot about the Bible by discussing it around the table with a group of other believers. As people give insights from their own study and thought, each one is enriched in ways that don't come sometimes in personal study.

A third way to take in the Bible is to hear it preached. We can also learn a lot by hearing someone open up the Scriptures and expound them. Our Winter Bible Conference affords us a wonderful opportunity to study the Sermon on the Mount. Dr. Mack Roark will be here Sunday through Wednesday. Let's take advantage of some enriching Bible study this winter. See you Sunday.

In His Grace,

Pastor Russell
