From our Pastor

Beloved,

In his book, The Fulfilled Family, author John MacArthur quotes a father who said, "My family's all grown, and the kids are all gone. But if I had to do it all over again, this is what I'd do. He then listed the following:

1. I would love my wife more in front of my children.
2. I would laugh with my children more—at our mistakes and our joys.
3. I would listen more, even to the littlest child.
4. I would be more honest about my own weaknesses, never pretending perfection.
5. I would pray differently for my family—instead of focusing on them, I'd focus on me.
6. I would do more things together with my children.
7. I would encourage them more and bestow more praise.
8. I would pay more attention to little things, like deeds and words of thoughtfulness.
9. I would share God more intimately with my family; every ordinary thing that happened in every ordinary day I would use to direct them to God.

Psalm 128 says "How blessed is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in His ways...your wife shall be like a fruitful vine within your house, your children like olive plants around your table. Behold, for thus shall the man be blessed who fears the Lord. Indeed, may you see your children's children."

This Sunday is Fathers Day. Join us as we discuss the importance of fatherhood.

In His Grace,

Pastor Russell
