From our Pastor

Beloved,

Our Fall Revival is entitled "Conference of Champions." The date is October 26-29, 2008, Sunday morning through Wednesday night. We have a great team leading us in Jon Randles and Jeff Berry.

Jon Randles is from Lubbock, Texas and is a much sought after speaker and preacher. He has been very involved on a national level with Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He speaks in over 100 churches and 50 school districts a year coast to coast. Randles is a graduate of Hardin Simmons University, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is currently working toward a Ph.D. in History at Texas Tech University. Jon is married and has three children.

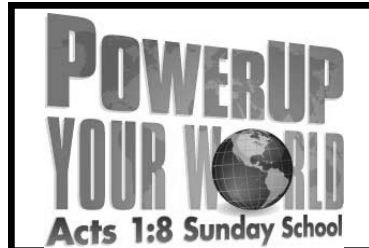

Jeff Berry is a much sought after worship leader from Nashville, Tennessee. He leads worship all over the nation in such diverse venues as See You At The Pole events, chapel services at places like OBU, and in various conferences throughout the United States. You will be greatly blessed by his ability to bring the people of God into genuine worship.

What do we need to do in these few days before the revival? First, pray every day for God to send revival. Second, come every night to the worship services (we will also have Noonday services Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday). Third, invite people to come with you.

Let me leave you with a question by Del Fehsenfeld, Jr.: "If revival depended on you—your prayers, your faith, your obedience—would America ever experience revival?"

Yours for genuine revival,

Pastor Russell
